

Highlights for Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) at WBC

- Competitive pay • Flexible schedule and work environment • Reasonable caseloads
- Truly valued for your contributions • Small therapist run company • Reasonable commute times between clients • Free online learning platform for continued growth in the field (CEUs)

Role

- Oversee a caseload of ABA clients ranging in ages 2-adolescence children with autism
- Educate and collaborate with parents and other family members • Report to owner and clinical supervisor • Encouraged to continue education

Responsibilities

- Conduct intakes and create individualized goals for each client • Attend a weekly session with the RBT/CBT to maintain progress, observe child, support the CBT/RBT and check in with parents • Properly supervise RBT/CBT, ensuring they are following all company standards • Maintaining caseload documentation-session notes, monthly written reports, and 6 month treatment plan updates • Ensure progress across goals and in multiple settings • Support goals with evidence-based research • Create engaging program and curriculum design that is individualized for client • Participate in collaboration with other service providers and family members • Maintain HIPAA guidelines • Attend monthly check-in with owner to review progress and goals

Required Qualifications

- BCBA Certification • Masters in Education, ABA, Special Education, Psychology, or related field. • At least two years of experience working with children with autism and experience with ABA • Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Pass background screening

WBC is located in Bothell/Mill Creek area. All hours will be held at clients home/community setting in the greater Eastside area. We are open 5 days a week 8am-7pm.

For more information see website at wicklerbehavioral.com or contact the owner directly at (425) 246-9784